

I am writing to complain about the Sinclair Broadcasting Network's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation and a violation of the public trust.

This action is particularly egregious in such a close election that has already seen despicable smear tactics used against Senator Kerry. Sinclair's viewers deserve to have a fair and honest reporting on the candidates -- not blatantly one-sided shows masquerading as news.